

Christian Falkenberg Husum – CV

Christian Falkenberg Husum is an experienced attorney with significant commercial experience from various industries. Today he works primarily with asset management across a variety of assets, however the anchor of the activity is shipping.

Having gained shipping experience while working for A.P. Moller Maersk and through a long cooperation with the V.Ships Group, Christian founded OptiNordic Shipping Limited, which is the shipping arm of the Falkenberg Plus Group.

As a shipowner, Christian has worked with a number of International (US and European) banks and has structured and owned 5 commercial tanker vessels during the last two years.

Christian graduated as a Master of Law from the Copenhagen University in 2001. He is known as a financially strong, dedicated and hardworking attorney and asset manager.
